

2022-23 IAABO CREW OF 2 FLOOR MECHANICS / SIGNALS EXAMINATION
(All Questions are based on the IAABO Crew of 2 Officials Manual)

This examination is presented in Yes/No format. Carefully read each situation described and determine whether or not the statement is correct.
1. On drives to the basket, the Lead has primary coverage on block/charge plays in the lane area.	1.	Yes	No
2. When the Trail signals a successful three-point try, the Lead should mirror the successful three-point goal signal.	2.	Yes	No
3. During the pregame warm up, the Umpire observes the visiting team and the Referee observes the home team.	3.	Yes	No
4. At the end of a quarter/period, officials should sound the whistle when ruling a try was not released prior to the horn sounding to end the period.	4.	Yes	No
5. During the first of multiple free throws, the Lead may stand on the court beside the player in the first lane space.	5.	Yes	No
6. If there are no players in the midcourt area, the Trail should remain sideline-oriented, positioned at or below the 28-foot mark.	6.	Yes	No
7. When the 15-second warning horn sounds prior to start of the third quarter, the Umpire should check with the official scorer for readiness which includes confirming the starting players for each team to begin the second half.	7.	Yes	No
8. During press coverage, the Lead should be initially positioned one or two steps nearer to the end line than the deepest player, keeping all players boxed in.	8.	Yes	No
9. The ruling official should not verbalize the type of foul committed at the site of the foul.	9.	Yes	No
10. When communicating with a head coach during a live ball with the clock running, an official should remove the whistle from the mouth to talk so the coach clearly understands what the official is saying.	10.	Yes	No
11. In the Lead position, if the ball moves to the basketline, the Lead should close down toward the free-throw lane line extended (B position).	11.	Yes	No
12. When a held ball occurs, the ruling official should sound the whistle and immediately signal the held ball signal.	12.	Yes	No
13. The Trail should "get under" shooters only when certain there is no chance of being beaten in transition to the other end of the floor.	13.	Yes	No
14. The Trail should not retreat in anticipation of transition, nor begin transition from Trail to Lead with the back turned toward the play.	14.	Yes	No
15. After each whistle, only the Referee is responsible for ensuring the clock has stopped.	15.	Yes	No
16. Both officials are responsible for confirming that marked free-throw lane spaces are properly occupied.	16.	Yes	No
17. During frontcourt end line throw-ins, officials must hand the ball to the thrower.	17.	Yes	No
18. The jump ball procedure requires the tossing official to sound the whistle while outside the circle, and then step into the circle to toss the ball.	18.	Yes	No
19. In the frontcourt, the Trail is responsible for the farther sideline from the free-throw line extended to the backcourt end line.	19.	Yes	No
20. When an offensive player drives to the basket, the Lead has primary coverage for plays in the lane when they involve a secondary defender.	20.	Yes	No
21. The Lead shall not move to ball side when a player drives to the basket.	21.	Yes	No
22. During an injury delay, one official should always stay next to the injured player even after bench personnel has arrived.	22.	Yes	No
23. Pass direction dictates officials' coverage on pass/crash plays in the free-throw lane area.	23.	Yes	No
24. If the ball is advancing in transition well ahead of the Trail, the Trail should hustle into the frontcourt to be in proper position to officiate their primary coverage area (PCA).	24.	Yes	No
25. The Lead official's initial starting position should be along the end line, according to ball/player location.	25.	Yes	No

#	Answer	References
1.	YES	Pg. 17, Section 7d, Pg. 31, Diagram
2.	NO	Pg. 18, Section 10
3.	NO	Pg. 13, Diagram
4.	YES	Pg. 20, Section 17.g, 18.b
5.	NO	Pg. 62, Section 5.c, Pg. 64, Diagram
6.	YES	Pg. 18, Section 9e
7.	YES	Pg. 20, Section 20.d.2, Rule 3-3-1.a
8.	YES	Pg. 33, The Lead Section A., Pg. 34, Diagram
9.	NO	Pgs. 49, Section A.8
10.	NO	Pg. 151, Section 1
11.	YES	Pg. 17, Section 8.b
12.	NO	Pg. 19, Section 14.a
13.	NO	Pg. 30, Diagram
14.	YES	Pg. 18, Section 9.j.
15.	NO	Pg. 20, Section 17.b
16.	YES	Pg. 62, Section 4.a
17.	NO	Pg. 42, Section G.1, Page 46, Diagram
18.	YES	Pg. 37, Section A.1.c,e
19.	YES	Pg. 24, Diagram, Pg. 43, G.4.b, Pg. 44 Diagram
20.	YES	Pg. 32, Diagram
21.	YES	Pg. 18, Section 8.g
22.	NO	Pg. 21, Section 23.f
23.	YES	Pg. 32, Diagram
24.	YES	Pg. 18, 9.c
25.	YES	Pg. 17, 7.c, Pg. 24, Diagram